

BOWIE BENCH SEAT

alor

Description

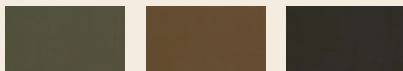

As offspring to the Frankie Dining table, this smaller nugget of FSC certified timber shows off its chunky legs, sweeping curves and flat pack assembly.

As partner in crime to the Frankie Dining table, this bench seat nests perfectly with its corresponding table size and ensures that there's enough room to get out from either end (we thought this through).

For those that prefer padded shorts on their morning commute, we also offer an optional seat cushion to help get you through those long drawn out chats with your extended family.
